“WE OFFER A CUSTOM ARRAY OF SOLUTIONS FOR YOUR BUSINESS NEEDS”

ABOUT INDUSTRIAL ASSEMBLY SERVICES

Whether you're an entrepreneur launching your next big product, an established company needing outsourced assembly services or a government entity seeking broader support, Saskatchewan Abilities Council Industrial Assembly Services offers a custom array of solutions for your business needs. We save private companies, equipment manufacturers and government entities valuable resources while impacting their bottom lines through our array of assembly services.

ABOUT US

Through our wide range of services, Saskatchewan Abilities Council can meet your various business needs. We are a registered charity and a Non-Profit organization dedicated “to working with people of varying abilities to enhance their independence and participation in the community through vocational, rehabilitation, and recreational services.” We specialize in helping, private sectors, government agencies and nonprofit organizations save time, money and valuable resources through our diverse services.

OUR GREATEST ASSET

Saskatchewan Abilities Council Industrial Assembly Services remains committed to employing and providing valuable work experience for people with varying abilities. Our guiding principle is to focus on abilities and not disabilities. We take pride, not only in our training programs, but also in matching each employee’s abilities with projects that will bring out their strengths in order to consistently exceed customer expectations. Every member of our Industrial Assembly family has a unique story to tell, and when you partner with us, you become apart of that story.

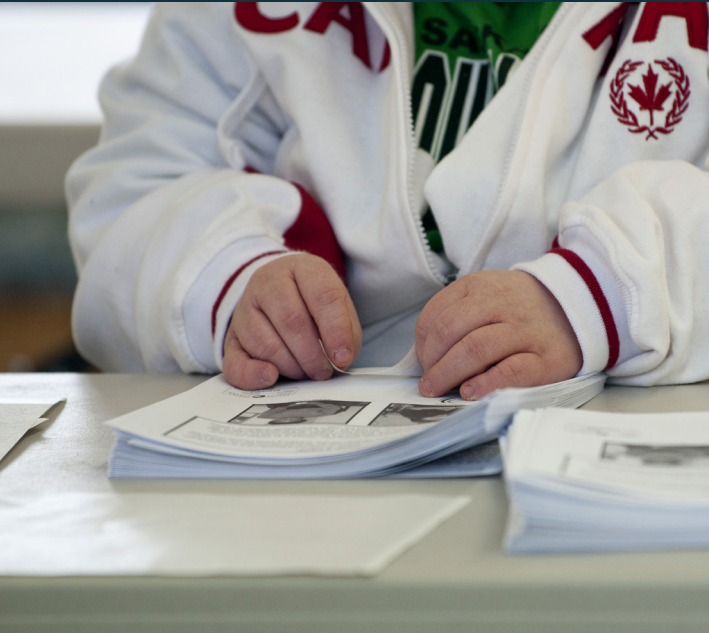

Why use Assembly Services from Saskatchewan Abilities Council?

Our capabilities are broad, but we specialize primarily on assisting businesses within the mail preparation phases. As your strategic outsourced partner, we are invested in your success and aim to provide a level of personal service and attention to detail that will give you peace of mind while we get your product to market on time and on budget.

ASSEMBLY SERVICES

As a certified manufacturing facility, we consistently uphold strict standards through our established process controls and quality systems. Our facility features one loading bay and over 20 clients and employees who work together to handle low- to high-volume orders. Our Industrial Assembly is living proof that people with varying abilities can engage in meaningful work and contribute to their community and economy.

STRENGTHEN YOUR ORGANIZATION'S IMAGE AND BOTTOM-LINE THROUGH A NON-PROFIT PARTNERSHIP

In the past several decades, the public's desire to support companies who back social causes has been on the rise. Developing a relationship with a non-profit partner can provide your organization with a number of benefits.

6 REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD PARTNER WITH US:

1. Increase sales of products or services by attracting new business partners and relationships
2. Increase employee engagement, morale and retention
3. Increase customer brand loyalty
4. Draw media attention and coverage to your organization
5. Increase shareholder return
6. Generate recognition from stakeholders for your contribution to the community

Our qualifications and proven processes make Saskatchewan Abilities Council perfectly positioned to be exactly what you need in an outsourced partner, with the added benefit of helping us give back to the community.

TESTIMONIALS

HERE IS WHAT OUR CUSTOMERS SAY ABOUT US:

“Working with Saskatchewan Abilities Council has helped us communicate with our customers in an efficient and timely manner. Because of the size of our customer base, we have used their assembly and bulk mailing services to get our message out quickly and to the right audience. When unique projects arise, the staff has worked with us directly to come up with solutions that allow us to achieve our objectives.”

I would strongly recommend the Saskatchewan Abilities Council to other organizations. Their staff has been excellent to work with and very helpful, consistently providing a high level of service. It has been a pleasure doing business with them!”
